Celestial Magic is a good beginning to a new series. I am impressed with the worlds that Emma Adams has developed. The main character, a woman that is strong and knows what is right, certainly fits well in this world. The other lead characters are raw yet and need to be more well rounded but it seems that this will occur in the future books.

Celestial Magic Celestial Marked Book 1

Nigel Jackson is kind of hit-or-miss, for me, but this book shows just what the man is capable of. His depth and breadth of research is astounding, and "Celestial Magic" shows it off. This is a book primarily about Islamo-Hermetic astrological magic, mostly involving the lunar mansions (Nakshatras) and the "15 stars", particular stars within the fixed signs of the Zodiac, but it is also a book on the Hermetic philosophy behind astrology and talismanic magic.
