Stewardship: Choosing Service Over Self-Interest by Peter ...

Stewardship is about choosing service over self-interest. It begins with a willingness to be deeply accountable for a body larger than yourself – for a team, an organization, a community. Imagine how strong your organization would be if everyone were deeply committed and accountable for its success. These are not new ideas.

Stewardship : Choosing Service over Self-Interest by Peter ...

Peter Block's, Stewardship: Choosing Service Over Self-Interest, is a compelling call for those in power to revisit the way they choose to govern. Block calls for radical reform in the way institutions are organized, the way they distribute power, and how they compensate employees.

Stewardship: Choosing Service over Self-Interest: Block ...

The thesis of the book is empower people to make decisions. It also speaks about serving as a method of leadership. It talks about team interests as opposed to self interest (the belief being that a strong team is the best for self interest) Interesting thesis. Choose serving over self interest because this is in your best self interest.

Stewardship: Choosing Service Over Self-Interest by Peter ...

Historically, stewardship was a means to protect a kingdom while those rightfully in charge were away, or, more often, to govern for the sake of an underage king. The underage king for us is the next generation. We choose service over self-interest most powerfully when we build the capacity of the next generation to govern themselves.

Book Review: Stewardship: Choosing Service Over Self ...

Block's intentions in Stewardship are good, to provide a method for organizations to choose service over self-interest, but I found his assumptions remarkably narrow-minded. The ideals of his stewardship model call for a certain type of employee - a passionate, driven, and largely entrepreneurial employee.
