Bing: The Can Man

The Can Man happens to come along, and he offers to help Tim cart his many bags of cans to the redemption center. After turning in all the cans, Tim stands with a bag full of coins and watches as The Can Man walks away with an empty cart. Seeing the first flakes of snow starting to fall, Tim makes a decision.

The Can Man makes it easy for people to return their deposit containers AND get money for their containers. In 1995, a husband and wife dedicated themselves to picking up Deposit Containers from homes in their community and paying for them on pickup. From these humble beginnings, The Can Man now employs 30-40 people in Johnson City and Binghamton.

3 reviews of The Can Man "I visited The Can Man redemption center for the very first time today to enjoy the benefits of receiving 6 cents per can/bottle that I return. I accumulated over 400 cans and bottles on my back porch, so it was time to move them out. I had them separated, cleaned, organized, and accounted for, yes I have OCD. I drove over to their Oliver Street, Johnson City location ...
