Like many drugs, crack cocaine opens the door to demonic activity. The architect of a crack built house is a demon spirit. When I was set free from the bondage of crack, the fight to maintain my freedom became passionate and personal. So I assigned a personal name to the demonic spirit responsible for my addiction. I named him YANLIC.

The House That Jack Built (2018 film) - Wikipedia

A familiar nursery rhyme takes a decidedly dark turn in this sobering picture book. Written in a hip-hop rhythm an based on "The House That Jack Built," the new cumulative rhyme focuses attention on the drug trade and abuse of crack cocaine. No stone is left unturned as the text demonstrates the drug's ripple effect, which begins with exploited South American coca farmers--"These are the Farmers who work in the heat"--and ends up invading urban neighborhoods also infested with gangs ...
